Opsis Synopsis
Marios' paintings and illustrations with influences from animation, illustration and street art elaborately depict dystopian/utopian landscapes with environmental concerns. The social character of his work is found at its best in the large size murals he makes on urban building walls, in Cyprus and abroad.
Mon-Fri 09:00-15:00, Sat by call

Precious Metal Gallery
Evis is one of the most prominent jewellers of Limassol and highly appreciated for his cultural activism. Alumnus of Sir John Cass Faculty of Art, Architecture & Design, he is creating elegant, high quality jewellery, using precious metals and stones, masterfully deploying techniques such as mokume gane and enamelling.
Mon-Sat 10:00-13:30 & 15:30-18:30

Pana's Patchwork & Creations
With degrees in shoe and handbag design from Cordwainers College, Panayiota has been creating various objects since 1999. She is now focused on working with leather, different types of fabrics and crochet with a special yarn to create handbags and small leather goods.
Mon-Fri 11:00-18:30

Peftasteri Pottery
Christiana has been working with clay since 1981. Her ceramic creations are useful objects such as jars, mugs, bowls, as well as decorative, such as human figures and fruit forms. Mostly made on the potter's wheel, her works are inspired by the local cultural heritage. Workshops for adults and children are available in afternoon hours.
Mon-Fri 09:00-16:30, Wed 09:00-13:30

Spanos Metal Art
Self-taught, intuitive and experimental, Panayiotis uses the welding technique to create metal sculptures. He crafts large sized complexes from tiny metal parts welded together to take the form of animals, human bodies and busts with remarkably realistic postures and expressions. His works can be found in many private and public collections.
Mon-Fri 09:00-13:00

Una Fatsa Una Maska
Maria studied jewellery design in Florence, where she learned the technique of the traditional Venetian mask making from papier-mâché. Using clay and gypsum she has been casting original and elegant masks for years in various designs, colours and textures. She is currently working on a new series of jewellery from bronze. Workshops & classes are available.
Mon-Fri 10:00-13:30 & 15:00-17:30

Morfi Gallery
Since 1986 the gallery had been hosting art exhibitions with some of the leading artists from Cyprus and Greece. The remarkable architecture of the gallery's exterior with stone arched windows, as well as the interior, with arched divided rooms and a courtyard with local trees and plants are altogether an extra reason for visiting the space.
Tue-Sat 10:00-12:30 & 16:00-19:00, Monday closed

Cat Kerameas Ceramics
Andreas' ceramic works vary from animal forms, geometrical bowls with naturalistic decorations, pomegranates, mugs and other useful objects in various colours and textures. The asymmetrical compositions of his elongated figures, the most characteristic of his work, standing or sitting in clusters, couples, or alone, result from the artist's attempt to express the vulnerable human nature. Workshops & classes are available.
Mon-Fri 09:00-19:00, Sat 10:30-14:30

Lovenlight Design & Craftsmanship
Since 2010, the work of the brothers Sahand and Navid from Iran combines contemporary design with old craftsmanship techniques. With love and dedication to their work they create handmade furniture, lights, spinning tops and other unique pieces of art from natural wood in a wide range of sizes, shapes and colours, distinguished for their high quality and attention to detail.
Tue-Fri 10:00-17:00

Arcube Studio
An interdisciplinary design studio working within the overlapping fields of interior, architecture, graphic, furniture and textile design. Their all-embracing creative process aims to design decorative and functional objects such as chairs, armchairs and tables in relational harmony with their spatial environment, both exterior and interior, tailored to the client's needs.

Makers Will Make
The open studio Makers Will Make, an initiative of Bytheway Productions, is a space of experimentation, expression and creativity. Equipped with a large-scale laser cutter that is open to rent to the public, it becomes a meeting point and a place of inspiration for creative people interested in the field of design to implement their ideas.
Mon-Fri 09:00-17:00

Prisma Art Glass
Swiss born Roswitha Lobniece has been working with various techniques such as stained glass, etched glass and texture architectural glass since 1985. The wide variety of her creations, useful and decorative, such as doors, flours, walls, lights, sculptures lamps, mirrors and jewellery are characterised by her Swiss-quality and craftsmanship.
Mon-Fri 10:00-18:00, Sat 11:00-16:00, Sun by call

S.Theodosiou Icons & Paintings
Sakis is one of the well-known icon painters of Limassol following the technique and aesthetic of Byzantine ecclesiastical art and at the same time a painter with a distinctive Greek style. His influences range from the Hellenistic-Roman Fayum portraits to Greek folk painting and the 1930's neo-Greek painters G. Tsarouhis and F. Kontoglou.
Mon-Fri 09:00-13:00 & 14:00-18:00

Micro - Miniature Worlds
Micro is the only workshop in Limassol which specializes in miniature art. The tiny worlds created and painted by Gregory Grozos, such as the interiors of rooms, city landscapes and fairy tale villages, are carefully encapsulated within jewellery pieces, watches, frames, glass domes, nut-shells etc. Imagination meets craftsmanship in the smallest scale possible.
Mon-Sat 09:00-15:00

Oria Creations
Oria has been working with mosaic making and ceramics for the last 15 years. Her works, inspired by nature and especially the sea, have the human figure as their central subject. She combines ceramics, mosaics, aluminium and metal to create installations, as well as useful objects such as plates, bowls, mosaic tables and lanterns. Workshops & classes available.
Mon-Fri 08:00-12:00 & 15:00-18:00, Sat 09:00-13:00

Skulukuin Jewellery
Maria's art is inspired by the Cypriot cultural heritage, classical Greek designs, nature and people. In her own words she aims to give shape and life to cold metal using her hands. Working with silver and glass enamelling she designs and creates a variety of handmade jewellery resembling geometrical shapes and patterns, fish, birds, amphorae and other figures with a fresh contemporary aesthetic.

Diatehnon Arts & Culture
Specialized in the arts, crafts & design, as well as cultural education, this creative space is located in the 1930's Municipal Market building. Inspired by the Cypriot cultural heritage they create contemporary works of art and useful objects in ceramics, mosaics, icon painting and instrument making. They share their knowledge by organizing creative activities and innovative presentations for all ages.
Mon-Fri 09:00-20:00

Constantinos Ceramic Creations
Inspired by ancient Cypriot pottery Constantinos is creatively interpreting the forms of these pots and sculptures adjusting them to his personal style of simplicity and frankness. His experimentation with local rocks that he uses for glazing results to a variety of original colours and textures that characterizes his work.
Mon/Tue/Thu/Fri 10:00-13:00 & 15:00-18:00, Wed/Sat 10:00-13:30

6x6 Centre for Photography
A multi-functional space entirely dedicated to the art and practice of photography. It offers high quality printing, an exhibition space and a wide range of photographic services, both for professionals and photography enthusiasts of all ages and levels. The 6-week practical photography course and most of the workshops take place at their fully equipped studio.
Mon-Fri 09:00-18:00, Sat 10:00-13:00

Katie Colours Art Studio
Katie is an Anglo Cypriot painter and mosaic maker working and living in Limassol since 1987 in a 120 year old town house with a courtyard. Inspired by the Cypriot nature she creates oil paintings, watercolours, prints and mosaics with vibrant and alive colours. Workshops & classes are available.
Mon/Tue/Thu 10:00-13:00 & 15:00-18:00, Friday closed Wed/Sat 10:00-13:30 / phone in advance

Welbry Art & Glass
A family run business devoted in exploring the world of stained glass since 1987. Their studio, located in a traditional stone and mud brick town building, is fully equipped for various techniques such as leaded windows, copper firing, lamp making, fusing and slumping and kiln fired glass painting. Workshops available for both adults and children over 13 years old.
Mon-Fri 09:00-13:00 & 16:00-19:00 / phone in advance

Theomaria Art Gallery
Vera Paralidou's ceramic sculptural human complexes, naturalistic as well as abstract, endeavour to capture the lively and vigorous posture of the human body. Her creative process is engaged in an endless play with form and movement, whereas the use of pastel colours emphasizes the fragile and sensitive nature of the body. Her gallery is located in an impressive town house built in 1888.
Mon-Fri 09:00-13:00 & 15:00-18:00 / phone in advance

George Heracleous Art Gallery
The 'pure psychic automatism' of the creative process and the need for expression through colour and gesture, reveal the direct affinity of Heracleous' work with Abstract Expressionism. A prolific painter, highly appreciated for his work, he creates abstract images based on his visual experience of the world, preserving the essence of the subject and evoking the feeling of the moment.
Mon-Sat 09:00-21:00 / Sun by call

Nina Sumarac Contemporary Art Studio
Serbian artist Nina Sumarac elaborately illustrates a fusion of imagery of a surrealist-symbolist bend in the form of paintings, drawings, digital graphics, photography and various art media. Her work, dialectically approaching the ideas of identity and alienation, as social and cultural products, is internationally celebrated as thought provoking. Workshops & classes are available.
Mon-Sat 10:00-13:00 & 16:00-18:00, Sun by call

Michaela's Ceramics
Michaela's clay characters, cartoony and childish, each one of them telling a personal story, derive from a fusion of the daily and the imaginary. With simple forms and bright colours, her ceramic creations feel at the same time familiar and otherworldly. Workshops & classes are available.
Mon/Tue/Thu/Fri 10:00-19:00 Wed 10:00-14:00 & Sat 09:00-16:00

Lellos Bookbinding
Mr Lellos, a man in love with his craft, is the oldest bookbinder in Limassol, since 1955. Together with his son Petros they run the workshop that can satisfy local and international orders. The workshop specializes also in the restoration of old books maintaining their original feel, look and materials. A collection of centuries-old books can be found here.
Mon-Fri 09:00-13:00 & 15:00-18:00

Nocturne Gallery
'Action painting' or 'gestural abstraction', which the Anglo-Cypriot painter Paul Timms employs, denies the classical rules of harmony. He distorts the form converting the visual elements into an amorphous flow of energy, in an attempt to obliterate what is typical in Art. His works can be found in private collections in Cyprus and abroad. The neo-gothic aesthetic in his latest artworks has become his trademark.
Mon-Fri 12:00-19:00

Theo Theodorou Jewellery
With jewellery studies in Florence and over 30 years of creativity, Theodoros Theodorou is one of the city's most distinguished jewellery makers. Born and raised in Limassol, he is also actively involved in the cultural development of the city. His multifaceted jewellery collections vary from minimal forms to bold and intricate compositions of precious metals, ebony, fabrics, precious and semi-precious stones.
Mon-Fri 10:00-13:30 & 17:00 - 20:00, Wed/Sat 10:00-14:00
